

HEADER / COVER SECTION

Name:

Richard Lowe Jr.

Title:

Bestselling Author | Professional
Ghostwriter | Founder of The Writing
King

Tagline:

Your story has the power to change lives.

Contact Info:

■ Email:

rich@thewritingking.com

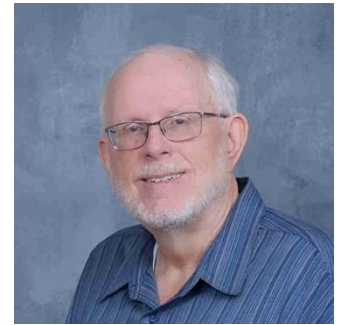

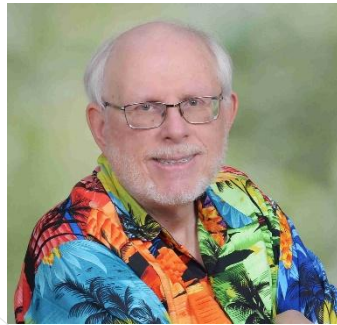

■ Website:

thewritingking.com

■ Location:

Clearwater, FL

Headshot:

SHORT BIOS

100-Word Bio

(Podcast / Intro)

Richard Lowe Jr. is a professional ghostwriter and bestselling author with 113+ books authored and 54+ ghostwritten for executives, founders, coaches, and public figures. His clients have used their books to raise $30M+ in venture capital, land TEDx invitations, and secure deals with traditional publishers. Before launching his writing career, Richard spent 20 years as Director of Computer Operations at Trader Joe's, overseeing $16B operations across 474+ stores. His current book, The Ghostwriting Advantage, is the comprehensive guide to hiring a ghostwriter.

150-Word Bio

(Media / Panel Use)

Richard Lowe Jr. is a professional ghostwriter and bestselling author with 113+ books authored and 54+ ghostwritten for executives, founders, and public figures. His clients have used their books to raise $30M+ in venture capital, land TEDx invitations, and secure deals with traditional publishers.

Before launching his writing career, Richard spent 20 years as Director of Computer Operations at Trader Joe's, overseeing $16B operations. His current book, The Ghostwriting Advantage, is the comprehensive guide to hiring a ghostwriter. He hosted three interview podcasts totaling 98 episodes and has appeared as a guest on 100+ shows including The Chris Voss Show.

His philosophy: "Your story has the power to change lives."

250-Word Bio

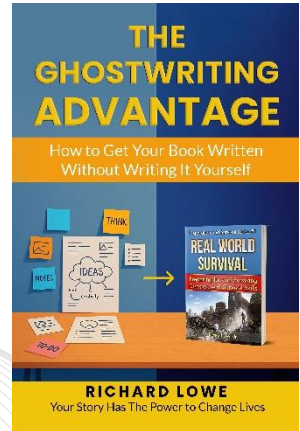

(Full Profile)

Richard Lowe Jr. is a professional ghostwriter and bestselling author. He has authored 113+ books and ghostwritten 54+ more for executives, founders, coaches, and public figures. His clients have used their books to raise $30M+ in venture capital, land TEDx invitations, and secure deals with traditional publishers. His current lead book, The Ghostwriting Advantage, is the comprehensive guide to hiring a ghostwriter.

Before becoming a full-time ghostwriter, Richard spent 33 years in enterprise technology. His 20-year tenure as Director of Computer Operations at Trader Joe's, where he oversaw $16B operations across 474+ stores, gives him a rare combination of technical depth and storytelling ability.

He served as Technical Editor and Contributing Author on Cyberheist for KnowBe4 founder Stu Sjouwerman. His ongoing series include Enemies of You (nonfiction commentary) and the Victorian fiction series of reimaginings of Jules Verne and H.G. Wells classics. He hosted three interview podcasts totaling 98 episodes and has appeared as a guest on 100+ shows including The Chris Voss Show.

His philosophy: "Your story has the power to change lives."

SPEAKING TOPICS

- Interview-friendly and flexible. Richard is happy to tailor talking points to your show's format and audience.

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

- Why do successful people delay writing their book?
- What makes a book actually move the needle?
- How do you make tech or niche ideas readable?
- What's the ghostwriting process like behind the scenes?

NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS / CREDENTIALS

- 113+ books authored plus 54+ ghostwritten titles
- 20 years as Director of Computer Operations at Trader Joe's
- 33 years total in enterprise IT and cybersecurity
- Author of The Ghostwriting Advantage, Focus on LinkedIn, Make a Living as a Self-Published Author
- Specialist in executive memoir, thought leadership, and business books

AS SEEN ON

- The Chris Voss Show (1M+ listeners)
- The Drew Sutton Show
- The Robert Plank Show
- Newswire
- Leaders and Their Stories (host)
- 100+ Guest Appearances